

Transforming Communities for Inclusion (TCI) Global is deeply saddened by the passing of Mr. Sylvester Katontoka, a fearless advocate, visionary leader, and tireless champion for the rights of persons with psychosocial disabilities in Zambia.

We join the disability movement in Zambia, across Africa, and globally in mourning this profound loss. Through his leadership, advocacy, and unwavering commitment to justice and inclusion, he leaves behind a powerful legacy that will continue to inspire generations to come.

His work in advancing the rights, dignity, and recognition of persons with psychosocial disabilities has made a lasting impact, and we honour his courage in challenging oppressive and discriminatory systems and advocating for equal recognition before the law.

On behalf of TCI Global, we extend our heartfelt condolences to the Katontoka family, the Zambia Agency for Persons with Disabilities (ZAPD), the Mental Health Users Network of Zambia (MHUNZA), and the broader disability community during this difficult time.

May his legacy continue to guide our collective struggle for dignity, equality, and inclusion.

May his soul rest in peace.
